Former Palatka Lady Dies.

Mrs. W. H. Browning of Oviedo, Fla., was buried from the home of her aunt, Mrs. M. F. Benet on North Second street, yesterday forenoon.

Dr. Henry Wise Tribble, president of Columbia College and one of the ablest and most eloquent preachers of the south, will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday at both hours. Each and all are urged to come out and here this able and forceful man of God.

Some Fine Potatoes.

In front of the real estate office of P. J. Becks is a sack of large sweet potatoes raised on the farm of J. E. Edmonson, a short way out on Palatka on the Bannerville road. These potatoes weigh all the way from three to six pounds each, and there were two samples that mysteriously disappeared that weighed ten pounds each.

When it is considered that Mr. Edmonson is not only a farmer, but a business man and politician as well, his achievement in potato growing seems all the greater. Anyway it shows what can be done on the average farm lands of this section.

Orpheum Theatre Crowds.

That the Orpheum theater habit is taking fast hold of the people of Palatka can be seen from the big crowds that flock to this popular place nightly. The reason can be traced in the main to the excellence of the picture displays. They have a clearness and life-likeness that is new to Palatka and due in large measure to the special appliance Manager Kallfield recently attached to his machine.

Any way the people like the pictures and are flocking in big crowds every night to see them.

The crowd on Tuesday night numbered about 400, and this because it had been announced that Mrs. Kallfield would sing. This lady's appearance was greeted with a storm of applause and more followed the rendition of each of her three numbers.
